Mine Surveyor

Reporting to the Senior Mine Surveyor the purpose of the position is to maintain and update spatial data in relation to location of mine openings and infrastructure, and ensures that surveying of planned openings and infrastructure is followed to design.

In this role you will work closely with the Planning, Development, Services and Operations Departments to facilitate accurate mining and recording of mine workings.

The scope of work will include:

- Collection, analysis and evaluation of survey data
- Preparation and maintenance of the Mine Model and Survey plans as directed under the Mine Safety and Health Regulation 2007
- Enforce Perilya Broken Hill's Safety Policies and Procedures

To be successful in this role you will have:

- University qualification in Surveying
- A high regard for safe practices
- Demonstrated the ability to work as an individual as well as part of a team.
- Proficient computer knowledge of Microsoft Packages
- At least 2 years experience in underground mine surveying
- Must hold a current manual Driver Licence
- Experience with Leica survey equipment, Vulcan, Microstation or other mining software will be well regarded.

The city of Broken Hill and the surrounding region provides the perfect opportunity to experience the great Australian Outback in all its glory. Broken Hill is a well-appointed rural mining town located in South Western NSW. The town boasts a thriving community that consists of mining, rural and artistic components. Broken Hill is a family town with a wide variety of family friendly facilities. Broken Hill offers indoor and outdoor sporting facilities, choices of lower and upper schools, a hospital comprising of midwifery and paediatric facilities and a regular air service with daily flights to Sydney and Adelaide.